APICOLTURA ROBBIANO

Category: Pastry, honey, chocolate, jam
business description:

The wooded areas on the banks of the River Orba, with the paths among the acacia trees, is a small paradise for bees. The Robbiano family positions its beehives here, proposing high quality honey for three generations, starting of course with acacia honey. The millefiori honey is also worth tasting, while in the farm you will find products such as the classic beeswax candles.
