Da Giuseppe

Category: Restaurants and taverns business description: Montemarzino rises in a scenic position on the ridge between Val Grue and Val Curone. Ristorante Da Giuseppe is at the center of the village close to the church and the remains of the 11th century castle.
The restaurant serves dishes of the local tradition with a keen eye for seasonal ingredients, influenced by the neighboring areas, the Apennines of Genoa, Pavia and Piacenza. In season, the white truffles of our area are of excellent quality and can be appreciated paired with various dishes, the same applies for the porcini mushrooms.
