Modern apartment in historical center

Category: Holiday Houses and Apartments
business description: Situated in the central Via Brofferio, in an elegant building, newly renovated apartment on the first floor with lift composed of kitchen, living area with sofa bed, double bedroom with large wardrobe and bathroom with shower. Small furnished terrace which faces onto the internal courtyard. TV, unlimited Wi-Fi, washing machine, air conditioning. Bars, restaurants, shops and monuments nearby.

On the Via Franchigena and town at the heart of the Duchy of Asti in the Late Middle Ages, it was an important centre during the Risorgimento and under the Savoia family. The churches, towers and fortified houses reveal a glorious past, when it was known as the “city of the hundred towers”. It rises among the hills of the Langhe and Monferrato and is known all over the world for its wines. Many tourists pass through Asti for the richness of the territory, the villages, vineyards, woods and good food and a lovely bottle of Moscato d'Asti as a souvenir is a must.
