Palazzo Gazelli

Category: Palaces and historic houses
business description:

The complex is composed of the palazzo renovated in the mid-18th century to the design of Benedetto Alfieri (englobing the medieval tower) and of the adjacent palazzo, always of medieval origin, renovated in the mid-19th century by the architect Valessina, according to the category of building "revenue property" including the rustic appurtenances in the courtyards. During the visit, it is possible to admire the part of the complex intended for wineries for wine production and the two inner courtyards. Momentarily closed due to the epidemiological emergency caused by Covid 19
