PANETTERIA BARABINO

Category: Bakery
business description:

It is said that the Brassadè were the favourite desserts of altar boys: thanks to their shape, they were hidden under the tunic, during very long processions, to be devoured at the first pangs of hunger. These doughnuts, prepared with flour, white wine and olive oil, can be appreciated today as breakfast food. Taste those of Panetteria Barabino, together with other baked specialities: the ever-fragrant bread, the stretched grissini, pizza, soft amaretti, canestrelli, corn biscuits and fresh pastries.
