Romanico fra Colli e Castelli

Category: Cycling Routes
Titolo: Romanesque between hills and castles
Descrizione del percorso:
Amongst the Vineyards and hills one encounters unforgettable panoramic views of the Alpine arch. From the hamlet of Murisengo, dominated by the Castle, make a deviation for the quaint village of Montiglio among Romanesque churches lost between the cemeteries of the villages.
Tappe del percorso e punti di interesse:
Departing from Via Cascina Vallone; at the stop turn right for Murisengo. Take a ride through the village once in Murisengo to Piazza del Municipio where there is a fountain, then take Via Asti. Continue for Bricco and on reaching Albarengo is a chance to make a detour to visit Montiglio, a village with narrow streets that climb up all the way to the Castle. After go downhill and back to Albarengo, past Colcavagno and Albarengo Alto on the sp34. The Romanesque Church of San Vittore and Corona di Colcavagno in the small cemetery are well worth visiting. At Molinasso, at the traffic light turn left towards Tonco. At Cardona stop turn left until you reach Tonco. Then head towards Trittango and continuing uphill return to Villadeati into via Torino and then to the square with the fountain.
