Villa Giarvino

Category: Holiday Houses and Apartments
business description: A unique setting for an unforgettable vacation. Our wish is to welcome you as guests into our home, giving you an experience immersed in nature and local traditions. Giarvino is a blend of garden and wine, the perfect combination of what our project intends to offer: large spaces, discreet and refined hospitality, privacy and relaxation, in a privileged context to discover the outstanding food, wine and landscapes of Piedmont.
We have renovated an old farmhouse in the heart of Southern Monferrato, once a winemaker's house, maintaining the features of the traditional architecture of Piedmont. The spaces have been modernized and integrated with the most recent technological innovations, including alternative energy producing facilities. We avail of nine bedrooms and suites, one different from the other, tastefully furnished and equipped with the most exclusive comforts.

The estate is located in the hills not far from Acqui Terme and is surrounded by vineyards, woods and orchards. There is a large garden and terrace, where you can relax in summer, sip a glass of wine and let your gaze wander over the rolling hills.
The garden is the beating heart of the villa, around which numerous activities rotate:
enjoy moments of deep relaxation by the swimming pool, a platter of local produce in the shade of the big trees or explore the paths and the woods that surround the estate.
The property offers many opportunities for delightful banquets: on the terrace, in the garden, in the wine cellar. at the Restaurant, or in a romantic tête à tête in the tree house. On request, our chef can prepare an afternoon snack, an aperitivo, or an elegant dinner with fresh local ingredients.
The cellar of the wine and grappa, produced using the grapes of our vineyards, will give you a taste of the native wine.
At the end of a day spent discovering the area you can relax in the small heated infinity pool, challenge yourselves to an exciting game of chess in the open-air or enjoy a stroll among the vineyards. In the cooler evenings, the large living room in front of the fireplace is the ideal setting for a game of pool and a chat with the other guests. Or you can find your quiet corner and enjoy peaceful moments in the company of a good book.

Our restaurant serves the specialties of the most authentic Piedmont cuisine, prepared using fresh local products and ingredients selected from small local producers. In summer, the meals are served in the outdoor courtyard, while in spring and autumn you can choose between the elegant dining room and the charming atmosphere of the wine cellar.
